

Larkin	Oregon - Employer Statements Process (State Income Replacement Benefits)
Disability Form	No employer statement form - employers must only review the pending claim for accuracy of information.
PFL Form	No employer statement form - employers must only review the pending claim for accuracy of information.
Timing	Upon claim submission
Notification	Employer may provide additional information or any corrections within 5 calendar days
Submission	Online, mail, or through other method approved by the department.
Disability Sample Form	No sample provided by state
Paid Family Leave Sample Form	No sample provided by state
Website Registration Required by Employer?	Employers will be notified when an employee files a claim and when it's approved, but exactly how employers will be notified, is to be confirmed (pending information from the state). We will monitor this and provide an update once confirmed.
	The above pertains to registering with the state for the employer statement process. Employers have separate obligations for registering with the state for contributions and wage reporting (via Oregon's Frances Online platform) - see the " Coverage Options and Funding " section on this state's Compliance Center page.
